ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

BE IT KNOWN, That we, Daniel M. Lynch, Richard T. O'Donnell and Albert G. Shaw, do hereby associate ourselves together and form a corporation under Chapter II of Title XIII, Revised Statutes of Arizona, 1901, and amendatory thereto, and adopt the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I.—The name of the Corporation is ARIZONA-CELTIC COPPER COMPANY and its principal place of transacting business in Arizona is Clifton, Arizona.

ARTICLE II.—The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted is to make contracts; to purchase, lease, option, locate or otherwise acquire, own, exchange, sell, or otherwise dispose of, pledge, mortgage, hypothecate and deal in mines, mining claims, mineral lands, coal lands, oil lands, timber lands, water and water rights and other property, both real and personal, and to work, explore, operate and develop the same, and to deal in the products and by-products thereof; to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, erect, own, operate and sell smelting and other ore reduction works, oil refineries, saw mills, power plants, railroads and tramways to lead from the company's principal works, and steam, electric and motor railroads to serve as common carriers and otherwise outside the territory of Arizona; to do a general manufacturing and mercantile business; to own, handle and control letters patent and inventions, to own, cancel and re-issue shares of its own capital stock and to own and vote shares of other corporations.

ARTICLE III.—The amount of the authorized Capital Stock of the Corporation is Three Million Dollars, divided into Six hundred thousand shares of the par value of five dollars, each, which shall be paid in at such time as the Board of Directors may designate, in cash, real or personal property, services, lease, option to purchase, or any other valuable right or thing, for the uses and purposes of the corporation, and all shares of capital stock, when issued in exchange therefor, shall thereupon and thereby become and be full-paid the same as though paid for in cash, at par, and shall be non-assessable forever, and the judgment of the Directors as to the value of any property, right or thing acquired in exchange for Capital Stock shall be conclusive.

ARTICLE IV.—The time of the commencement of the corporation shall be the day these Articles are filed in accordance with law, and the termination thereof shall be twenty-five years thereafter, with privilege of renewal and right of perpetual succession as now provided by law.

ARTICLE V.—The affairs of this corporation shall be conducted by a Board of not less than three nor more than fifteen Directors, by whom a President and Vice-President shall be elected and a Secretary and Treasurer appointed. The Directors shall be elected by and from the Stockholders on the first Monday in March of each year. Until their successors are elected and qualified, the following named persons shall be the Directors: Daniel M. Lynch, Richard T. O'Donnell, Archibald Morrison, Benjamin F. Taylor, Albert G. Shaw, Walter J. Webb and Stephen W. Dorsey.

ARTICLE VI.—The Directors shall adopt By-Laws for the government of the corporation, and may amend the same. They shall have power to fill vacancies occurring in the Board from any cause, and to appoint from among their number an Executive Committee which, to the extent provided by resolution or by the said By-Laws shall have and exercise the powers granted the Directors by these Articles.

ARTICLE VII.—The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which the corporation is at any time to subject itself is Two Million Dollars.

ARTICLE VIII.—The private property of the Stockholders of the corporation shall be forever exempt from corporate debts of any kind whatsoever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, WE have hereunto affixed our signatures this 20th day of February, 1912.
